Urgent Announcement Regarding Claims Suspending for Budget Relief

Nevada Medicaid claims are suspending temporarily for Budget Relief. Payments will not be received by providers as usual. This action may affect providers that submitted claims received by DHCFP and processed for payment during the September 3, 2021, financial cycle, and after. Claims submitted will be processed and payments will be made when funds are available. The release of funds is anticipated to occur prior to September 30, 2021. Providers should continue to submit claims as usual.
